VolCorp Forms Corporate Partnership with KCUL

1/20/22

NASHVILLE –VolCorp is pleased to announce a new corporate partnership with the Kentucky Credit Union League (KCUL). This Elite Corporate Partnership will create an even stronger bond between VolCorp, KCUL, and Kentucky credit unions.

VolCorp’s mission is to inspire credit unions to reach new heights by providing dynamic products solutions and unparalleled member service. Headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee, VolCorp has been serving the credit union movement since 1981. VolCorp equips credit unions with the products and services to help them prosper.

KCUL, with headquarters in Louisville, Kentucky, is an association of credit unions operating in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, owned and controlled by its member credit unions. Founded in 1934, KCUL promotes the growth, unity, and vitality of affiliated credit unions, providing the highest levels of leadership and professional service, quality information, and programs to enhance their ability to prosper in the financial marketplace.

“VolCorp is both honored and excited to partner with KCUL,” said Jeff Merry, President & CEO with VolCorp. “This enhanced relationship with KCUL will generate a greater connection between VolCorp and the credit unions of Kentucky.”

“Partnering with VolCorp seemed like a natural fit,” said Debbie Painter, KCUL President/CEO. “We are looking forward to our newly expanded partnership and the opportunities that lie ahead.”
